

AUGUST 24, 2019

8AM-12PM: Franklin Farmers Market

10AM-5PM: Vintage Artesian Fair

12PM-7PM: Juried Art Fair

Discover Downtown Franklin hosts the inaugural Ethos Celebration of the Arts event in Downtown Franklin on August 24, 2019. The festival features a juried art fair showcasing, local and regional original art in different medium categories.

Patrons can enjoy a daylong event featuring the Franklin Farmers Market, a Vintage Artesian Fair, and the Juried Art Fair, which is a competition for artists who are judged by a panel under a set of specific criteria. Throughout the day there will be live entertainment, art demonstrations, and interactive art activities for people of all ages! Celebrate the art community with us! Discover Downtown Franklin may use photos of you from the event for promotional purposes.

Discover Downtown Franklin is a non-profit organization and a nationally accredited Main Street Community. Our mission is to create and promote community traditions, encourage a healthy economic atmosphere, and strive to maintain the unique historic character to central Indiana

Features of Ethos Celebration of the Arts

- Street fair-like experience encompassing all Downtown Franklin
- Artists and craftsmen selling handmade, one of a kind art.
- Hands-on art activities and demonstrations throughout Downtown Franklin.
- Live bands and performances on our entertainment stage.
- Food Trucks featuring amazing, delicious, and unique foods.
- Local wine and beer in designated beer garden.
- Ribbon cutting for alley improvements and art installation
- Japanese Films at the Historic Artcraft Theater
- Community Art Show sponsored by the Franklin Parks & Recreation
- All proceeds will benefit Discover Downtown Franklin